SOURCE

On 9 March Marshal Tito is reported to have traveled via Postojna, Divaca and Pola, to the Island of Brioni where he and Edvard Kardelj met with British General Slim. The Yugoslav border was closed for six days and all traffic into Yugoslavia was blocked. The reinforced border guards reportedly shot eight persons who attempted to cross into Italy. These guards were detailed from the First Proletarska Division, KNOJ units, and from Marshal Tito's bodyguard.*
